Activity 18

Mental and emotional health or social health?

Below is a list of benefits of doing physical activity. Decide if they are related to mental and emotional health or social health. Draw an a line from the description to the correct circle.

increased confidence	make new friends	improve your mood	improved energy levels
raised brain function	increased motivation to exercise	learn leadership skills	improved wellbeing

