

Traits For Protection (Part 2)

Match the animals with the right traits.

They have a shell that works as a protective shield.

They have spines that protect them.

They have smelly urine to scare animals away.

They have long and sharp tusks.

They have antlers on their head.

They have a long and sharp bill.

They have horns on their heads.

They have a long tooth that grows out of their mouth.

Elephant and walrus

Pufferfish, porcupine, & hedgehog

Turtles and snails

Narwhals

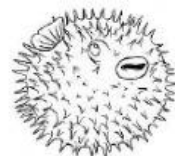

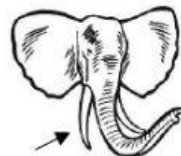

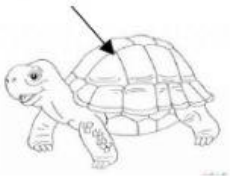

Deer, moose, and elk

Skunks

Bull, rhino, buffalo, ram

Swordfish

Drag the following words under the right picture: shell, spines, tusks, antlers, & horns.

Match the pictures with the right animals.

Pufferfish

Hedgehog

Porcupine

Walrus

Elephant

Narwhal

Swordfish

Rhinoceros

Elk

Ram

Skunk

