

Indirect Object Pronouns

Indirect object pronouns (IOP) replace nouns that act as indirect objects. Indirect objects tell us _____ or _____ the action is being done.

IOPs are almost the same as direct object pronouns – except the _____ and _____ forms are different.

Indirect Object Pronouns

Uses

- Indirect object pronouns can either _____ or _____ the indirect object.
- The IOP is _____.
- Adding in a _____ or _____ to specify who the IOP is referring to is _____.

Ex. Carla le da el lápiz a su amigo. --> Carla gives the pencil to her friend.
(accompanies)

Roberto les da unas plumas. --> Roberto gives them some pens.
(replaces)

Placement

1) _____

2) _____

Ex. Mr. Wills is going to buy us pizza today. --> (before) Mr. Wills nos va a comprar pizza hoy.
--> (attached) Mr. Wills va a comprarnos pizza hoy.

Práctica

I am going to give Profa a birthday present. _____

My grandma always brings cookies to us on Sundays. _____

You need to buy a book for me. _____