

- 1 Look what the woman tells the tourist. Would you know which way to go? Match the words to their definitions.

The Empire State Building?
Yes, that's easy. Just walk eight blocks that way. When you get to 34th and Broadway, take a left. You'll see it on your right. But you can also take the subway, or a downtown bus ...

block

a downtown bus

34th and Broadway

subway

an underground railway

the distance from one street to the next a bus towards the city center (in Manhattan a bus going south)

the corner of 34th Street and Broadway

- 2 Have a look at these signs. Write the numbers of the signs next to the text.

- ☐ queue here
- ☐ do not throw away your rubbish
- ☐ wait for the green light
- ☐ wait until the woman shows you a table
- ☐ do not cross the street, use the pedestrian crossing
- ☐ please walk on the pavement