

Volcanoes are landforms that form when magma erupts onto Earth's surface as lava.

Drag and drop to fill the table below:

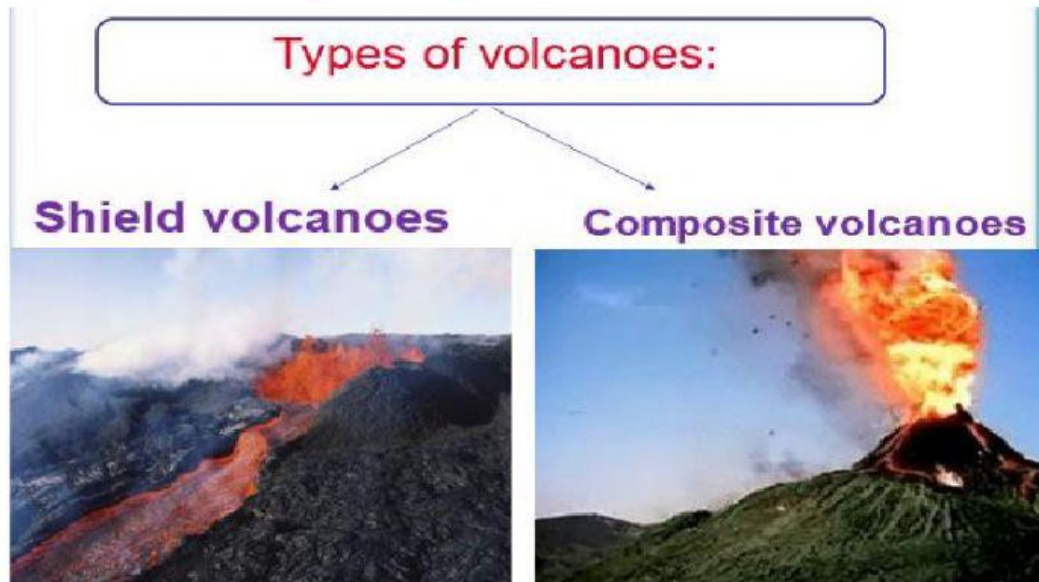

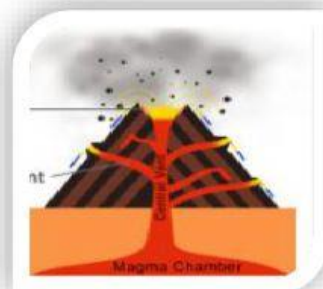

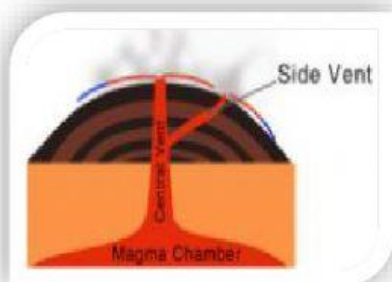

figure
Form
Description

after lava flows

lava flows and ash layers

large with gentle slopes

steep sides and a cone shape