

Comparisons

with adjectives, nouns, verbs and past participles

Created by TMarianVDL

I. READ BOTH JOB ADS. SELECT TRUE OR FALSE.

Assistant needed at an outdoor swimming pool. Must be able to swim. Responsible for keeping pool and changing rooms clean. $12/hour. Tues.-Fri. 12-7.

Learn web design!
In search of a bright young person to work as an intern for an advertising agency. Some clerical work. $15/hour. Mon.-Fri. 9-5.

1. An assistant at a swimming pool has shorter hours than an intern.
2. Working as an intern at an advertising agency allows more spare-time.
3. The intern job pays more hourly.

Travel agency needs energetic people. Knowledge of a second language is a plus. Mostly answering the phone. $18/hour. Flexible hours. Five vacation days a year.

Tutors in math, science, English, and music wanted at private summer school. Challenging work with gifted teenagers. Salary negotiable. Mon.-Sat. 3-7.

4. The travel agency job requires as much knowledge as the tutoring one.
5. The travel agency job offers more time-off.
6. Working for this travel agency will provide more job/personal-life stability.

Tennis instructor needed at summer camp for 12- and 13-year-olds. Must be excellent tennis player and good with kids. $18/hour. Mon.-Fri. 1-7.

Tour company seeks guide to lead bus tours. Great attitude and good speaking voice a must! Fun work, but must be willing to work long hours. $15/hour.

7. The tennis instructor will make as much money hourly as the tour guide.
8. The tennis instructor job requires someone as charismatic as the other one.
9. The tour guide job sounds more interesting than the first ad.