

I. Write the negatives.

positive (+)	negative (-)	positive (+)	negative (-)
1. trustworthy	_____	10. adventurous	_____
2. possible	_____	11. imaginative	_____
3. logical	_____	12. friendly	_____
4. practical	_____	13. polite	_____
5. supportive	_____	14. literate	_____
6. necessary	_____	15. patient	_____
7. happy	_____	16. perfect	_____
8. original	_____	17. legal	_____
9. kind	_____	18. reliable	_____

II. Choose the correct words and write them in the spaces.

1. He promised to help with the party, but he arrived too late to do anything.

He's _____. (unreliable/ logical)

2. She doesn't talk to anyone and she never smiles. She's _____.
(unnecessary/ unfriendly)

3. If you lend him money, you will never get it back. He's _____.
(unoriginal/ untrustworthy)

4. She loves reading and thinking, but she can't fix a bike. She's _____.
(unimaginative / impractical)

4. I've got a raincoat. I don't need an umbrella as well. It's _____.
(unnecessary / imperfect)

7. Some people think it's _____ to ask someone's age.
(impolite / imperfect)

5. I have an _____ fear of insects. (illogical/ unoriginal)

6. She never listens when I have a problem. She's very _____.
(unsupportive / unhappy)

III. Complete the sentences with the adjectives in the box.

illegal illiterate impatient imperfect impossible unadventurous unhappy unimaginative unkind unoriginal

1. I was only three minutes late, but he didn't wait for me. He's a bit _____.

2. She prefers staying at home to travelling. She's _____.

4. She hasn't stopped crying since he died. She's very _____.

5. You saw a pig flying? That's _____.

3. You aren't allowed to download these songs without paying. It's _____.

6. Why do you always copy my ideas? You are so _____.

7. There are a lot of _____ people in Brazil. The governments haven't done much for education.

8. It was _____ of you to ask about the accident. She's still shocked about it.

9. The items on sale are slightly _____ but most of them are worth buying.

10. I never liked his stories. They were so _____.

IV. Write sentences about people that you know. Use negative prefixes.

Maria is illogical. She's often angry about unimportant things.

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Family'n Friends

