Obligation and prohibition with verbs must, have (got) to, needn't

Obligation:

You	must	phone her.
	have to have got to

No obligation (lack of obligation):

You	don't have to	phone her now.
	haven't got to needn't

Prohibition: You mustn't phone her now.

NOTE

Need can also be used as a full verb.

I need (to use) the phone.

I don't need (to use) the phone.

MAKE RULES.

1. We use …… when it is wrong or illegal to do something.
2. We can use three different ways to express a lack of obligation: don't have to, ……..…… and ……..

We are in a serious situation. There are all kind of restrictions because of COVID-19 virus.

Write 5 prohibitions, 5 obligations and 3 no obligation examples.

example: We have to stay inside.

OBLIGATION	PROHIBITION	NO OBLIGATION
1	1	1
2	2
3	3	2
4	4
5	5	3

LIVEWORKSHEETS

Watch the following video.

Write some suggestions of How to Survive a Real Life Zombie Apocalypse (or maybe COVID-19) from the video.

LIVEWORKSHEETS