

1 Write the names of these areas.

2 Read and write T (true) or F (false). Then, correct the false sentences.

- a. Vegetation depends on soil, climate, relief and humidity.
- b. Pines, oaks and beeches are types of bushes.
- c. The African Savannah is a grassland area.
- d. Deserts are areas with fertile soil and high humidity.
- e. Grass in grasslands dies in drought periods.

☐
☐
☐
☐
☐

3 What is vegetation? Explain.

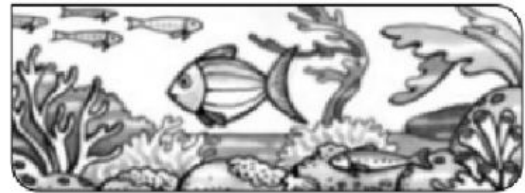

4 Read and complete the words.

- a. All the plants in an area, region or country.
- b. A long period of little or no rainfall.
- c. A grassland area in Africa.
- d. An area dominated by bushes.

v _ g _ _ _ t _ _ _ d _ o _ _ _ t
 s _ v _ _ _ h
 s _ _ u _ _ _ d

5 Read the text and complete.

oxygen – lungs – surface – marine – rivers

Some aquatic animals live in the sea.

They are _____ animals.

Others live in fresh water, in lakes or _____.

Aquatic animals spend most of their lives in water. Many of them breathe in _____ from the water through gills.

Others come to the _____ of the water to breathe in air, through _____.

6 Circle the correct animal.

a. A mammal that can fly.

bat / bird

b. A mollusc that lives fixed to the rocks on the seabed.

sea urchin / mussel

c. An insect that glides on the surface of the water.

skater / butterfly

d. A reptile that slithers.

snake / salamander

e. A water bird.

eagle / duck

7 Read, then write the correct word.

a. Squirrels live most of the time in _____ and swing from branch to branch.

trees – bushes – tunnels

b. Snakes haven't got legs, so they _____.

fly – slither – jump

c. Many small animals live in tunnels _____.

in the sea – in small houses – underground