1.The Marketing and Production Department

Word bank: requirements, Research and Development, schedules

Production and Marketing work together on _____ to create innovative products and services.

Production and Marketing ensures that customer _____ are met during the production process.

Production and Marketing work together to fulfill delivery _____.

2.The Human Resources and Production Departments

The production department works with Human Resources to decide on skills needed for hiring and training/ researching new staff...

The production department informs Human Resources of skills and tasks to be completed, which helps to write budgets/ job descriptions.

The production department works with Human Resources to decide on the most important tasks to be measured when doing performance evaluations/ hiring/training.