

Harry Potter lives a miserable life with the Dursleys, his cruel aunt, uncle, and their son, Dudley. He has no friends or any celebrations for his birthday. He has never played a sport, too.

A messenger brings him a mysterious letter. It is an invitation to a wonderful place he had never dreamt of. There he finds friends, sports, and magic. Something great is awaiting him. If Harry can survive the encounter...

Answer the questions.

1. Which word tells that Harry Potter lives a sad life?
2. Who is Dudley to Harry Potter?
3. How did Harry Potter receive the mysterious letter?
4. Harry Potter went to a beautiful place. Describe it using your imagination.
