

Complete the stories with the correct sentences

1. Cantuña agreed but that night he couldn't sleep. He knew he had made a horrible mistake.
2. he was afraid because he would lose his house and all his money.
3. Satan arrived at the San Francisco Church
4. the pact was over, and the church was incomplete and the soul of Cantuña free.

Many year ago, Cantuña offered to build the San Francisco church square in one week, but he noticed that it would be impossible.

First,

Then he asked Satan for help. After that, a strange man came in. "I can help you," he said. "I'll build the church square for you and you will give me your soul."

Next,

That same night Cantuña went to the front of the church; he took one of the stones and hid it. Just before the first sun rays appeared,

Cantuña and_____. Satan noticed there was something wrong; a stone was missing. There was no time. The bells of San Francisco Church announced the beginning of the day.

Finally,