

Phrasal Verbs Related to Travel

Match the phrasal verbs with their definitions:

	Phrasal verb	Definition
1.	check in _____	A. land
2.	go off _____	B. explore
3.	look around _____	C. start your journey
4.	run up _____	D. end your stay at a hotel
5.	touch down _____	E. start your stay at a hotel
6.	check out _____	F. return
7.	set off _____	G. say goodbye
8.	come back _____	H. accumulate
9.	see off _____	I. leave

Complete the text:

check in	look around	run up	touch down	go off
check out	set off	come back	see (somebody) off

Angela and I went to Puerto Rico last year. We _____ at 7am and my parents _____ at the airport. There was a huge queue when we _____ but fortunately we boarded the plane on time. As soon as we _____ we went to the hotel, got out our bikinis and _____ to the beach. During the week we had plenty time to _____. We saw the Bacardi Rum Plant, the Ermita Espinar Ruins and the Punta Borinquen Lighthouse. When we _____ we had a shock. We'd _____ a £100 bill at the hotel bar. Oh, well it was worth it. We had so much fun that we didn't want to _____.

Your turn:

- Do you like it when people see you off at the airport / bus station or is it embarrassing? Why?
- Have you ever run up a big hotel bill? What did it include?
- When you go on holiday do you like to look around the area or relax by the pool?
- When you go on a daytrip do you like to set off early? Why?
- Do you get nervous when your plane takes off and touches down?
- Have you ever gone on holiday and not wanted to come back?
- What do you need to do before you set off on a holiday?
- What's the most annoying thing about checking in and out of a hotel?

