

Asking for directions

I. Complete the questions.

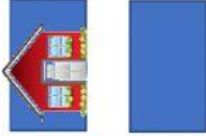

1. _____ do I get to the post office?
2. _____'s the post office?
3. Is _____ a post office near here?

Giving Directions

II. What does each illustration show? Copy from the box.

at the end - behind - between - block - far - go past - *go straight on - in front of - it's on the left - it's on the right - near - next to - opposite - traffic lights - turn left - turn right

* go straight on = go straight ahead = go ahead = go along = follow that road  turn left/ right = take the ... (first/ second/ third) on the right/ left

1.  _____	2.  _____	3.  _____	4.  _____
5.  _____	6.  _____	7.  _____	8.  _____
9.  _____	10.  _____	11.  _____	12.  _____
13.  _____	14.  _____	15.  _____	 _____

III. Write the lines in the correct order to make up the dialogue.

- Ok. Turn left into Main Street.
- Great. Is it far?
- Have you ever been to the book shop?

- No, it's just three blocks from here.
- Well, It's next to it. Go straight on past the school, then turn right into Main Street.
- How do I get to the pub?
- Follow that road past the police station and the chemist's. The pub is on your left.
- Yes, I have.

A: _____

B: _____

A: _____

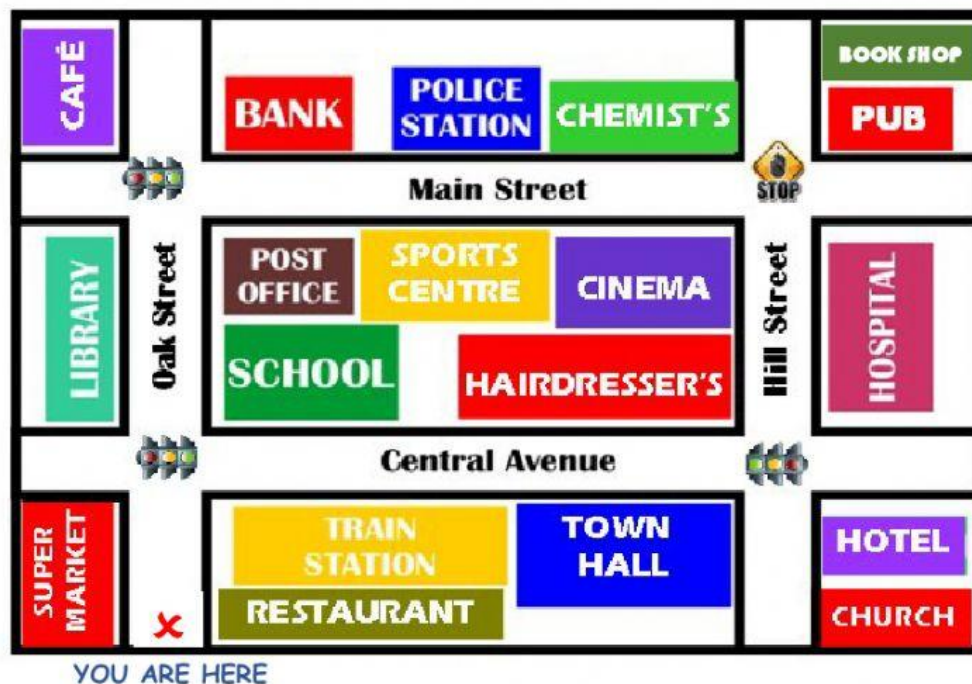

B: _____

A: _____

B: _____

A: _____

B: _____

III. Write a similar dialogue

A: _____

B: _____

A: _____

B: _____

A: _____

B: _____

A: _____

B: _____