

Let's REFLECT

On family...

How was your relationship with your family before the pandemic?

Has your relationship with your family changed because of the pandemic?

Things I do with my family now I didn't before quarantine?

My favourite memory from quarantine?

