

15 Listen. Choose the right option

- 1 A The text is quite an interesting exploration of smiles and laughter.
B The text explains the origins and importance of smiles and laughter.
- 2 A It states that both smiles and laughter were important for communication before languages existed.
B It says that they are both strangely contagious.
- 3 A It also explains how both laughter and smiling make us feel better.
B It also focuses on health – there's an amazing thing called laughter therapy.
- 4 A It concludes with a story about Mother Teresa, who believed that peace begins with a smile.
B In conclusion, it suggests that smiles are things which we should share more often.

16 Use your own words to answer the questions

- 1 Why is it useful to recognize a smile from a distance?
- 2 Why was the smile an important gesture before humans could speak?
- 3 In what way has human laughter evolved differently to that of other animals?
- 4 What effect can a false smile have?
- 5 Why does the author think we should smile more?

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____

17 Revision: body language

<https://learningapps.org/display?v=p2c436xnj18>

<https://learningapps.org/display?v=p99ti1v>

Head	Teeth	Arms	Lungs	Fist	tongue
------	-------	------	-------	------	--------

Legs	Nails	Hands	Shoulders	Eyes	Feet	fingers
------	-------	-------	-----------	------	------	---------

18 Grammar: Modal verbs. Watch This. <https://youtu.be/BT3JbwlpQxU>

Modals- Present:
<https://quizlet.co>

Modals- Past:
<https://quizlet.c>

Ability
Possibility
Suggestions
Deductions
Obligation
No obligation
Advice
speculation criticism
Prohibition

19 Speaking

Make a video or a recording about:

- Introduce yourself: name, age, where you live, your personality, ...
- Friends, hobbies, interests, what you do in your free time
- What you like and hate from you and from others
- About the the world around us, what you would change, school, society, ...
- Lastly, what worries you, your fears, what you want to be and do in the future...

(send it to me via e-mail to EDUCAMOS)