

Amanda Gorman

honor inspire weapon robust inaugural laureate impediment marginalization duty literacy recited unity

1. At 22, Gorman is the youngest _____ poet ever in the United States.
2. On Wednesday, 20th January, she _____ "The Hill We Climb," in front of the Capitol.
3. She was named the nation's first youth poet _____ at age 19.
4. She felt it was a huge _____ to be able to participate in such a historic moment.
5. She wrote a poem about _____ and the new chapter of America in this inauguration.
6. She set out to write a poem that would _____ hope at a moment when Americans are shocked from a deadly pandemic, political violence and partisan division.
7. She tried to make a poem that is both _____, but also accessible to anyone.
8. She had a speech _____ as a child and tried to overcome it to perform as a poet.
9. Amanda started her own youth _____ program, One Pen One Page, to help and encourage others.
10. In her poetry Amanda Gorman explores topics such as the race and _____ and often American history.
11. The power of poetry is everything for me. Poetry is – it's an art form, but, to me, it's also a _____, it's also an instrument.
12. The _____ for the poet is to make ideas that have been known, felt and said.