

Computer course test

Task I

Match choices (A-M) to (1-13) to find out the names of some parts of your PC:

A) webcam

B) printer

C) mouse mat

D) memory stick

E) laptop

F) screen

G) hard drive

H) disk

I) print out

J) speaker

K) keyboard

L) monitor

M) mouse

Task II

Choose the odd word out and underline it:

1) Windows, Linux, Doors

3) DVD, CD, VCD, CD-ROM

2) keyboard, buttons, joystick, stick

4) copy, cut, paste, push

Task III

Match the abbreviation with its definitions:

BIOS

DOS

CD-ROM

PC

IP

personal computer

internet protocol

Read only memory

Disk operating system

Basic input output system

Task IV

Write down what these pictograms can do when you click on them:

Task IV

Find a spelling computer error in each of five sentences and correct them.

Computer prints, for example, P instead of L:

- 1) Cet's have a hhat! _____
- 2) I mant tu plaj a computer hame. _____
- 3) Entar this prohrum bye pressing eny key. _____
- 4) Wove a coorsor by moving a mause. _____

Task V

Choose the best word to complete the sentences:

- 1) I write a report on the _____ this morning.
A) typewriter B) computer C) piece of paper
- 2) I _____ out two copies.
A) draw B) write C) print
- 3) The computer goes _____.
A) up B) down C) back
- 4) I _____ the data into memory.
A) save B) spare C) keep
- 5) I always make a _____ - copy.
A) side-up B) back-up C) inside-up

Task VII

Think and answer the following question: What do you use your PC for?
