

The Tiger's Heart by Jim Kjelgaard

I. True/False.

1. The Tiger's Heart takes you to a jungle in a tropical Central America. _____
2. The approaching jungle night was, in itself, a threat. _____
3. The brown skinned inhabitants of the village did not know the jungle. _____
4. The brown skinned inhabitants were intimately acquainted with its deer. _____
5. When the darkness came, the jungles was alive with strange and horrible things which man had ever seen and man could describe. _____

II. Multiple choice. Click on the correct answer.

6. Fill in the corrects answers, the brown skinned inhabitants were acquainted with these kinds of animal in the jungle:
  - a. _____
  - b. _____
  - c. _____
7. In the jungle as the night close in, Pepe reached out to fondle his rifle, and make sure that:
  - a. Rifle was loaded
  - b. Rifle was cleaned
  - c. A and B are incorrect.
8. According to history, this is the indispensable long knife of all jungle dwellers, and they had worked hard:
  - a. Machete
  - b. Scissors
  - c. A and B are incorrect
9. Pepe emerged from his hut, breakfasted on a papaya, and awaited his expected:
  - a. Friends
  - b. Neighbors
  - c. Visitors
10. By daylight, only now and again did a tiger come to raid a flock of :
  - a. Goats
  - b. Sheep
  - c. A and B are incorrect