

Topic: You have seen a poster in your school advertising a new mentor system in your school. The organisers are looking for volunteers amongst older students to help new students to feel welcome and to help them overcome any problems they might have in their first semester of junior high school. Write a letter to Ms. Campion offering your services.

