6- Read the following passage, then answer the questions:

Video and television are responsible for the declining انخفاض interest in reading among the young. While they may be harmless in themselves, They do nothing to build up reading skills. If some of the hours children spend watching television were devoted كرس to reading, the population would be better educated.

Watching a story is a totally passive سلبيا pastime. تسلية Someone else has made the decision about everything in the story. Reading a story is an active partnership الشراكة between writer and reader. Ideas are sketched هي رسمت أفكار and the mind of the reader creates the rest. ينشئ بقية

The problem is that many children read very slowly. They declare تعلن that they find reading boring and prefer to watch television. Their difficulty is interpreting تفسير the words. Children need to be able to read fast enough to feed the mind's hunger for a story. That means practice. Only by reading daily a child will become an independent مستقل reader. Parents need to be convinced واقنتاعا منها of the importance of preventing منع their children from wasting their hours on interviewing. Without the television the child is likely to turn to books for entertainment.

A) Answer the following questions:

1. What are video and television responsible for?
2. Why is watching a story easier than reading it?
3. How can children be good readers?
4. What do parents need to be convinced of?

B) Choose the correct answer from a, b, c or d:

5. The underlined word "they" refers. to
a) the young b) video and television c) children b) reading skills
6. The writer says that the population would be better educated if children

a) do their homework b) watch TV c) read much. d) read slowly.

7. According to the writer's view, TV is..... means of entertainment.

a) not an effective b) an encouraging c) an effective d) not a cheap
