1. Match to make true sentences about reptiles.

Most reptiles are	●	● using their lungs.
All reptiles breathe	●	● and lay their eggs on land.
Reptiles are oviparous	●	● are herbivores.
Most iguanas and tortoises	●	● carnivores, but some are omnivores or herbivores.
Crocodiles and alligators	●	● are carnivores.
Reptiles do not	●	● incubate their eggs.

2. Decide whether the sentences about amphibians refer to nutrition, reproduction or respiration.

Amphibians prey on small [ ], such as beetles and caterpillars.

Amphibians lay [ ] in water and do not incubate them.

Amphibians take in oxygen from water using their [ ].

Many amphibians catch invertebrates with their long tongues, which have a [ ] tip.