

Exercise 11

Write the correct time preposition.

1. I usually have a big breakfast Sunday morning.
2. Our holiday starts June in Turkey.
3. My little brother was born 2009.
4. Tomorrow my lessons starts half past eight.
5. Cindy works very hard weekdays, but she always have a good rest weekends.
6. This documentary is my favorite TV program. I always watch it the evening.
7. News starts 8 p.m. on my favorite TV channel.
8. Most people spend more time watching TV winter.
9. An interesting quiz show starts the first Monday of February.
10. This is a special documentary. You can watch it the first day of each month.