

Exercises

- 1. Complete these sentences using an adequate pronoun (to avoid confusions with the programme, do not use that).

In case the pronoun can be omitted, write --. It counts as 1 word.

She left the house	she had lived all her life (1 word)
She left the house	she had lived all her life (2 words)
She lived in a house	windows were all broken (1 word)
She lived in a house	windows were all broken (2 words)
They left the moment	they heard the loud noise (1 word)
They left	they heard the loud noise (1 word)
December is the month	days are the shortest (1 word)
December is the month	days are the shortest (1 word)
December is the month	days are the shortest (1 word)
This is the actual degree	I want to study (1 word)
I love the scene	Dorothy meets the scarecrow (1 word)
That's the guy	my sister is in love (2 words)
That's the guy	my sister is in love with (1 word)
The police searched the vehicle	the gun was found (1 word)
The police searched the vehicle	the gun was found (2 words)

- 2. Rephrasing. Join these sentences using the Relative Clauses structure. Omit the pronoun whenever possible.

I met the man. He was a criminal

= I met criminal (5 words)

She lost the money. I had given it to her

= She lost to her (5 words)

Robert called the doctor. My mother knows him

= Robert called (5 words)

The man was arrested. I reported him to the police.

= The man was arrested (5 words)

The doctor was right. Rob asked him about his problem.

= The doctor Rob was right (4 words)

The actress was very pretty. My brother dated her

= The actress was very pretty (3 words)

The secretary is in the office. The boss likes her

= The secretary is in the office (3 words)

We ate the cake. I bought it

= We ate (4 words)

He saw the model. Her beauty took his breath away

= He saw the model his breath away (3 words)

We were looking at the girl. She was extremely tall

= The girl was extremely tall (4 words)

Exercises

1. Complete with who's or whose (use capital at the beginning of the sentences) not here today?

bag is this?
broken the vase?
taken my purse?
in the office?
bag was stolen?
dad is Irish?

She's the woman

Ask William, he knows

Do you know

going to be our new CEO who ticket that is?