- In Spanish, to say to be, we use SER or ESTAR.
- SER is used to talk about physical description and characteristics.
- ESTAR is used to talk about emotions, mood, health and location.

1. Match up

Español	English
	sad
	tall good looking funny ill

enfermo/a guapo/a triste

divertido/a

alto/a

2. Is it SER or ESTAR ? - Translate into Spanish

To be	Ser
I am	Soy
You are	Eres
She is	Ella es
He is	Él es
It is	Es

I am ill (Boy speaking)

⬇

He is funny

⬇

Estar	To be
Estoy	I am
Estás	You are
Ella está	She is
Él está	He is
Está	It is

It is a dog

⬇

You are sad

⬇

- In Spanish, nouns have genders. They are masculine or feminine, singular or plural.

- In Spanish, adjectives (describing words) agree with the noun.

Definite article THE	Masculine Singular	Feminine Singular	Masculine Plural	Feminine Plural
	El	La	Los	Las

Indefinite article A (an)	Masculine Singular	Feminine Singular	Masculine Plural	Feminine Plural
	Un	Una	Unos	Unas

3. Choose the correct article and translate in English

Español	English
	The dog
	An idea
	The mother
	A pen
	A bedroom

Español	English
	A phone
	The brothers
	The sister
	A thing
	Dogs

- In Spanish, to say to have, we us the verb TENER.

To have	Tener
I have	Tengo
You have	Tienes
She has	Ella tiene
He has	Él tiene

4. Using the verbs TENER, ESTAR and SER, translate the pyramid into Spanish

I am happy

I am happy because

I am happy because I have

I am happy because I have a dog.
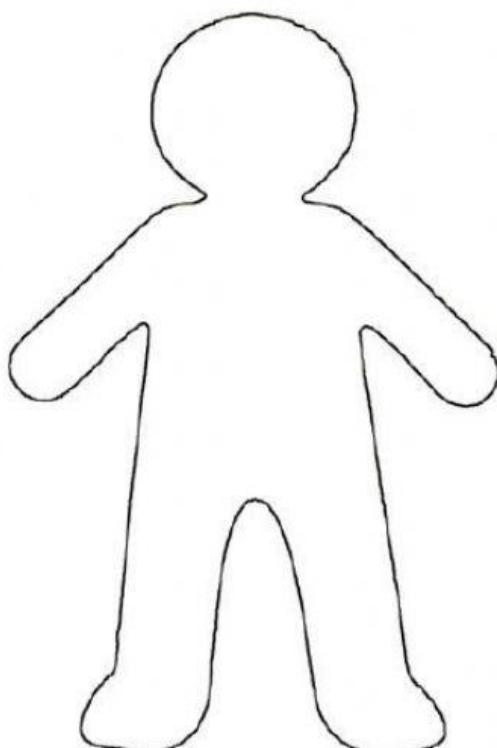

I am happy because I have a dog. The dog is tall.
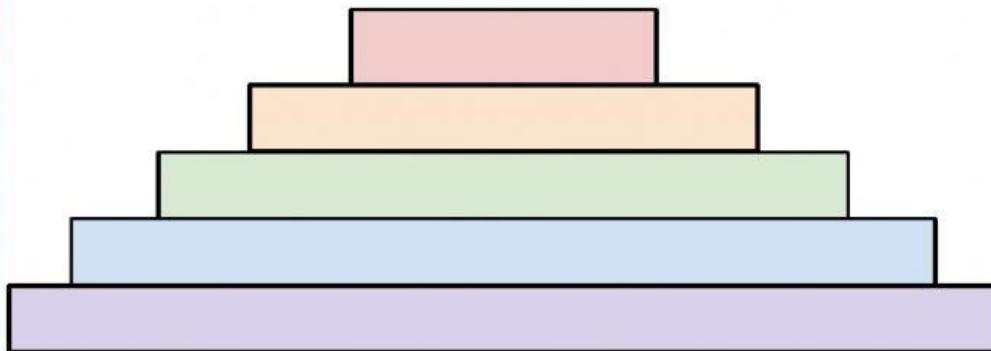

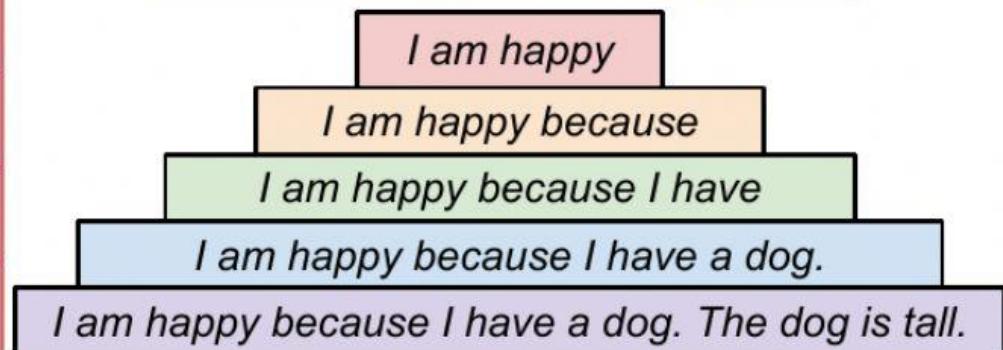

Checklist:

Do I need to use SER or ESTAR?

Is the dog feminine or masculine?

I have not used Google Translate

5. Describe a Superhero in SPANISH

You need to include:
- Physical Description
- Emotion
- Things he/she has
- También / y