

1. Complete the sentences with the correct word.

scattered      appalled      serve      reluctantly      capture elaborate      swing      faint-hearted      assemble      defy

1. The job of a lion tamer is not for the _____.
2. This sculptor is well-known for his _____ statues.
3. The horse races were in full _____ when we arrived at the racecourse.
4. She _____ agreed to have her picture taken.
5. Trevor likes to _____ photos of street scenes with his camera.
6. The reporter was _____ by the living conditions in the poor regions of the country.
7. The trapeze artists at the circus _____ gravity by flying through the air.
8. There were hundreds of sculptures _____ throughout the area for the art festival.
9. It can take days for artists to _____ their sculptures for the festival.
10. The artist hopes his paintings will _____ their purpose and raise money for charity.

2. Drag the correct word into the sentences.

collect      room      crowded      boost      poverty-broken way      poverty-stricken      busy      gather      increase

1. At midnight people _____ to watch the festival's fireworks.
2. Her anger gave _____ to laughter when she realised it was a joke.
3. Winning a race at the Royal Ascot can really _____ a jockey's career.
4. The charity supports _____ areas of the city.
5. The stadium was _____ with thousands of spectators.

