

Rewrite the sentences using the given word so that the meaning stays the same. Write from two to five words.

1. The bridge is able to easily withstand the weight of 100 cars at the same time. Of

The bridge isthe weight of 100 cars at the same time.

2. The girl always needs support from her parents because she is not able to take care of herself. On

The girl.....her parents because she is not able to take care of herself.

3. She was so embarrassed about her appearance at the party as she couldn't afford anything pretty. Of

She.....her appearance at the party as she couldn't afford anything pretty.

4. Be careful. He is easily upset by anything about his achievements. To

He is really.....about his achievements.

5. Living in groups and depending on each other is a common feature of human's society. of

Living in groups and depending on each other is.....human's society.

6. When that new student arrived, he quickly got familiar with the new learning system and assignments. to

When that new student arrived, he quickly got.....the new learning system and assignments.