

A Choose the correct answers.

1. The Japanese bow / hug when they greet each other.
2. Germans often shake hands / take a step back when people stand too close.
3. The students found out / forgot they didn't understand the differences in body language.
4. In Singapore people put their hands over their mouth / heart when they say hello.
5. There are a number of / uncomfortable ways people greet each other around the world.
6. There were athletes from many different meals / nations at the international competition.

B Complete the sentences. Make them true for you.

1. I always hug
2. In order to show that we care about each other, my friends and I
3. In my culture, people eat
4. When I greet someone I
5. It's a pity that
6. I usually kiss my grandmother on the cheek when
7. I get up early even when