

Exclamatory Sentence

Grammar

Read the comic strip below.

USE IT RIGHT

✿ An exclamatory sentence is a type of sentence which expresses strong emotions or feelings such as anger, surprise, happiness, excitement, etc.

e.g. Go away, you thief!
I'll teach that monkey a lesson!

✿ It ends with an exclamation mark (!).

Rearrange the words below to form exclamatory sentences.

- 1 won first I the prize hurray,
- 2 it you congratulations, deserve
- 3 to prize collect tomorrow I'm the going
- 4 a won television I huge
- 5 to we're Ligoland going
- 6 a idea what marvellous
- 7 going great, in I'm an aeroplane
- 8 very yes, happy and I'm excited

You can click on the dialogue to listen. We will discuss about it during next lesson.