

INFINITIVE GERUND

Fill in the gaps with the infinitive or gerund of the verbs.

1. Why is the door open? I clearly remember _____ (lock) it before leaving.
2. I think he should stop _____ (drink) so much.
3. I regret _____ (inform) you that your loan has not been approved.
4. If you have trouble sleeping, try _____ (drink) some milk before bedtime.
5. Are you looking forward to _____ (go) back to school?
6. It is not worth _____ (buy) this gadget. It looks cheap and it will break soon.
7. I'm so sorry. I didn't mean _____ (hurt) your feelings.
8. My little brother is too young _____ (be) left alone in the house.
9. Our teacher objects to our _____ (have) our cameras off.
10. She regretted _____ (shout) at her husband.
11. Oh dear! I forgot _____ (pay) the electricity bill.
12. Going on a trip usually means _____ (wake) up early.
13. The scenery was so amazing that we stopped _____ (take) some pictures.
14. She will never forget _____ (watch) that couple dancing.
15. He tried hard _____ (open) the stuck door but he didn't make it after all.
16. They are so glad _____ (be) able to travel again.
17. My brother seldom remembers _____ (do) his homework on time.
18. In addition to _____ (recycle), we should all try to save energy.
19. My parents suggesting _____ (go) to Rome next summer.
20. It's no use _____ (call) him now. He will have left.