

U3. Buy and sell

Name: _____ Date: _____

We use comparative structures to say what something is like in relation to something else. Before comparatives, we can use words like much, a lot, less, a little, a bit, and slightly to compare something by different amounts.

COMPARATIVES

It's much cheaper to travel by bus.
My brother isn't as tall as your brother.
I'm less intelligent than you!

Tan (alegre) com

(not) as + adjective + as

less + adjective + than

menys (alegre) que

much / a lot / a little / a bit / slightly + adjective (-er) + than

mol

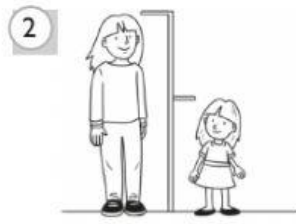

una mica

una miqueta

1 Read, look and circle.

1 My mum is slightly older / younger than my dad.

2 I'm a lot / slightly taller than my sister.

3 My best friend is a lot sporty / sportier than me.

4 My sister is much louder / not as loud than me.

2 Rewrite the first sentence using the word in brackets.

1 Harry is older than Emma. (as, as) Emma isn't _____.

2 I don't watch as much TV as you. (more, than)
You watch _____.

3 Lanzarote isn't as big as Tenerife. (than) Tenerife is _____.

4 Holly is a little bit shorter than Sarah. (slightly, than) Sarah is _____.