

Speaking for freedom

In the United States, although slavery was abolished in 1863, black people were not considered as equal, especially in the Southern states (Louisiana, Florida, Alabama...) where there were the Jim Crow Laws. So, Martin Luther King fought for their rights.

1. Watch this video and fill in the text below

2. Fill in the text

Martin Luther King Jr. was born in _____ (Georgia) in _____. He was a p_____, a_____, h_____ and the leader of the African American C_____ R_____ Movement. He wanted _____ and _____ people to be _____.

He was a _____ activist. He got inspired by his faith and _____. After R_____ P_____ had been arrested for not going at the end of the bus, he took part to the Montgomery Bus B_____. In August 1963, he delivered a speech called "_____ " to put an end to _____. He was _____ in 1968

Nowadays, every year, there is a Martin Luther King _____ to remember his struggle.