

Traits For Building Shelters

1. Animals have special traits that help them build shelters. Match the descriptions with the right animals.

They have long and sharp claws to dig holes and tunnels.

desert tortoise

They use hard, sharp, and powerful beaks to build nests.

prairie dog, mole

Their strong teeth cut trees and branches to build dams.

parrot, woodpecker

Their strong forearms and tough nails dig burrows in the desert.

beaver

Match each animal with the right picture.

desert tortoise

prairie dog

parrot

woodpecker

beaver

mole

