

Checklist:

Fluency and Coherence:

	Yes	No
Pauses and hesitations do not interfere with comprehension (Near native-like fluency)
Minimal hesitations and pauses
Speaks slowly because of hesitations in rephrasing and vocabulary
Answers in one-word, phrases and/or clauses and unable to make complete sentences that are linked.

Lexical Resource:

	Yes	No
Uses a wide range of vocabulary related to the topic appropriately
Uses idiomatic expressions effectively
Can paraphrase without difficulty
Uses limited vocabulary or tends to repeat a word or expression

Grammatical range and accuracy:

	Yes	No
Uses a variety of grammatical structures without noted errors
Occasional grammatical errors but do not hinder understanding
Uses the simple tenses more often that affects with understanding
Mistakes lead to complete misunderstanding

Pronunciation

	Yes	No
Pronunciation is neutral and easily understandable
Some hints of the native language noted but still intelligible
Uses a wide range of pronunciation features: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> a. Individual sounds b. Word stress c. Sentence stress/Rhythm d. Linking sounds
Severe problems make understanding difficult

Speaks for 1-2 mins	Yes	No
---------------------	-----	----

Source: <http://theieltscoach.com/wp-content/uploads/2014/05/IELTS-Speaking-Checklist.pdf>