

Change the following sentences to passive

Kristin made a cake

The students handed the reports

Mike wrote a letter

The technician was fixing the radio

The singer is going to write a new song

The woman tells a lot of stories

The lawyer is defending the case

The students will give a presentation tomorrow

The children have eaten the cookies

The school is hiring new personnel

Choose the correct choice to complete the sentences (pay attention the underlined verbs)

1. If we meet at 9:30, we _____ plenty of time.
2. Lisa would find the milk if she _____ in the fridge.
3. The zookeeper would have punished her with a fine if she _____ the animals.
4. If you spoke louder, your classmates _____ you.
5. Dan _____ safe if he drove slowly.
6. You _____ trouble at school if you had done your homework.
7. If you _____ in this lake, you'll shiver from cold.
8. The door will unlock if you _____ the green button.
9. If Mel _____ her teacher, he would have answered her questions.
10. I _____ the office if I was/were you.

Match the sentences with the correct half

1. If he asked me to marry him
2. We will continue to deliver the magazine
3. If Mary passes her driving test,
4. Unless you pay for the ticket within four days,
5. We won't give you a refund
6. The committee will inform you
7. If I were you,
8. If the students get under 50% in the final exam,

_____ I would take that opportunity.

_____ if you don't bring the receipt.

_____ if you were accepted.

_____ She will buy a new car

_____ our office won't be able to guarantee you a seat

_____ I would accept.

_____ they won't be able to move to the next level of the class.

_____ unless you tell us that you no longer want to receive it.