

PODER ELECTORAL EN ECUADOR

1. Arrastra la imagen donde corresponda sobre el proceso de sufragio.

The illustration shows an election booth. A woman (voter) is standing and putting a ballot into a box. Three people (delegates) are sitting at a table. A clock on the wall shows 1:50. A sign on the wall says 'MESA 113'. There are four dashed boxes on the left for labeling. On the right, there are four purple buttons with labels: 'urna', 'delegados de mesa', 'votante', and 'voto'. Red lines connect the dashed boxes to the corresponding elements in the illustration: the first box to the ballot box, the second to the delegates, the third to the voter, and the fourth to the ballot.
