Skip these two gaps in the title of the song for now and return to them after listening to the song.

"What would you _____ me _____?"
by David Ford

Another empty bottle in the hand
It helps to kill the things that we don't understand
The thoughtless speak, "Yeah, I'll be there for you"
Now sleep through all the dreams I never made come true

But I'm a fool for you
What would you _____ me _____?
Oh I'm a fool for you

Now, fill out the name of the song too. It matches the line in the chorus.

"Do Anything"
by Leynn

Verse 1:

I think I know everything because I do
I need to drop you if you're gonna question
everything I'm gonna do
I don't have time to play
I'm just stopping in to say I'm gonna have it my way, it's either that or the highway

Chorus:

I say what I mean and mean what I say.
If you have a problem with how I operate, take it up with my manager.
Oh wait, I do not have her because it is me,
I do what I please because I am free,
no one can _____ me _____ anything.
No one can _____ me _____ anything.
You think I'm kidding, you think I'm kidding,
you still think I'm kidding,
I'm really not kidding

MEANING

What do these two constructions mean?

A) to ask/persuade/force someone to do something for you
B) to pay someone to do something for you
C) they can mean either of those things depending on the context

---

FORM

1) What is used in the first construction?
_____ somebody _____

2) What is used in the second construction?
_____ somebody _____