

The Story of Hachiko | 6

The newspaper writes about Hachiko. It becomes famous in Japan. People come to visit it. They give it food. They pet it. Hachiko is a good example of love. People are amazed a dog can remember for so long. They are amazed a dog will never forget. Now many people have Akita puppies. They want a dog like Hachiko.

1.) Why are people amazed?

- a because Hachiko is so soft
- b because Hachiko never gives up
- c because Hachiko writes for the newspaper

2.) Who writes about Hachiko?

- a a newspaper
- b the owner
- c the woman

3.) Why do people buy Akita puppies?

- a because they are hungry
- b because they are Japanese
- c because they are loving

Many people come to feed and pet Hachiko.

true | false

Many people try to get rid of Hachiko.

true | false