

The Story of Hachiko | 7

They make a statue of Hachiko and put it at the train station. It is a hero to the people of Japan.

Hachiko died in 1935. It died near the train station. People visit the statue. People visit the train station.

All around the world Hachiko is famous. In Vietnam, there are coffee shops named after Hachiko.

1.) Where is the statue of Hachiko?

- a at the cafe
- b at the police station
- c at the train station

2.) When did Hachiko die?

- a all around the world
- b at the train station
- c in 1935

3.) Where can you go to Hachiko Café?

- a Japan
- b New Zealand
- c Vietnam

People admire Hachiko for its loyalty and love.

true | false

People in Japan don't have pets.

true | false