

ANECDOTES

PUT THE PARTS OF AN ANECDOTE IN ORDER (pon las partes de una anécdota en orden)

Si tienes dudas, dale click a la imagen para ver el video

APRENDE EN CASA III

READ THE FRAGMENTS OF THE ANECDOTE AND CHOOSE IF IT BELONGS TO THE BEGINNING, MIDDLE OR ENDING

(Lee los fragmentos de la anécdota y escoge si pertenece a PRINCIPIO, MITAD o FINAL)

ending

beginning

middle

	Oh surprise, my pencil was missing! The teacher looked at me curiously and when she came to ask what was happening.	I looked on the floor, on the bench, in my backpack, and nothing.
	I sadly told her that I had lost my pencil. She smiled, and pointed to my ear, I had put my pencil there.
	Once, I was at school And when the teacher asked us to only take out a pencil and an eraser,	I had prepared for a very difficult exam. I was very sure to look for them in my pencil case.

COMPLETE THE ANECDOTE WITH THE CORRECT VERB.

(complete la anécdota con el verbo correcto)

Last year I _____ to the beach in Cancun. My cousin was swimming quietly near the shore.

When suddenly my father _____ yelling:
SHARK!! SHARK!!

He _____, screaming like crazy, that was funny, but it also _____ us.

In the end, we realized it was just a bag of garbage floating.

