

Writing - Homework

Write a summary of one of the characters explaining how they have been courageous and how they have shown examples of the moral values they represent. Remember to use quotations to justify your answers.

