

Quiz 5

Product 5

Name: _____ CCT: _____
School: _____ 5th grade
Group: _____

I. Read the following anecdote and complete the sentences. There is an example. Follow the color as guide and choose from the dropdown menu  the correct answer.

Yesterday, I was doing my homework, it was a very difficult math exercise, I hardly understood it at school, so I knew I had to practice at home doing my homework. There were 10 problems in the homework, I was working on how to solve them for 2 hours, when suddenly I felt tired and I fell asleep. After 15 minutes, I woke up, only to notice my notebook had disappeared. Oh no! What a bad surprise! Suddenly I heard a strange sound from the kitchen, when I went to check the sound. I saw my cat and my dog playing with my notebook! I took it laughing happily because nothing happened to my homework.

1. The math homework was _____.

2. I was doing the homework for _____ hours.

3. My _____ and my dog were playing with the _____.

4. It was a _____ surprise.

5. I took it laughing happily because nothing _____ to my homework.

II. Use the words from the box to complete the definitions of the elements of a story. Drag and drop them in the correct line.

Characters – Setting - Plot - Conflict – Theme

6. The _____ refers not only to the physical location, but also the time the action takes place. It is the where and the when of a story.
7. It can be a problem that drives the action of the story. No _____, no story.
8. The _____ are most often people or animals. They are the whom of a story.
9. The _____ relates to the events that happen in a story. It is the what of the story.
10. The _____ it's the idea or the message of the story.