

FIRST EXCAVATION!

Mary arrived on the archaeological _____ for her first day of (Noun)

_____. The sun had only just risen and they wanted to get as much (Plural Noun)

_____ done as possible before the _____ got too _____ for (Verb) (Noun) (Adjective)

_____. She set down her _____ lunchbox and her _____ (Verb - ing) (Adjective) (Adjective)

water bottle. Then she picked up her _____ and walked over to her dig (Noun)

partner _____, who was standing next to a _____ hanging on a (Name) (Noun)

_____. Her job was going to be _____ _____ from the ground (Noun) (Verb -ing) (Noun)

into the sifter while _____ all the soil to look for (Same Name) (Verb -ed)

_____ artifacts as they went. It was _____ work and Mary and (Adjective) (Adjective)

_____ were starting to _____ in the _____ sun, which was (Same Name) (Verb) (Adjective)

now rising high above their _____. So far _____ had found lots of (Plural Noun) (Same Name)

_____, and twigs, and quite a few _____, but so far, no artifacts.
(Plural Noun) (Plural Noun)

Then _____ shouted in excitement and held up a piece of _____ (Same Name) (Noun)

for Mary to see.

Click here to hear the original story