

TIME CLAUSES

Task One. Read the sentences and choose the correct word.

1. _____ Hurricane Katrina hit New Orleans in 2005, it caused great devastation.
2. The residents were fighting to survive _____ the American people were watching the news.
3. _____ Hurricane Katrina, the world has seen more serious flooding.
4. July 2007 was a terrible month for many people in Asian. _____ the summer was over, there had been terrible flooding all over Bangladesh, Nepal and Northern India.
5. _____ floods destroyed many homes in India, people had to move in order to escape the water.

Task Two. Read the text and complete with these words: after, as, as soon as, before, since, when.

I live in Cambridge. In June 2007 England was hit by flooding. Our home filled with water. The day _____ I had seen the warnings on the news, but I didn't believe it would happen. I woke up early in the morning. _____ I saw the water in my bedroom. I jumped out of bed. _____ waking my parents up, we went onto the roof. Luckily, _____ we were climbing onto the roof, our neighbors were passing in a small boat. _____ our neighbor saw us, he offered to take us in his boat. The next day we returned to our house. It was a scary experience and _____ that night I haven't been able to sleep properly.

