

Name_____

Date_____

Chapter 5 Water

Answer the following questions

Use a Words from the word bank to answer the questions

-the clouds get heavy and turn into rain, sleet, hail or snow

-They are homes for many animals

-Water

-condensation-it forms a cloud

1. What makes up two thirds of your body?
2. What do the chemicals do that are added to water at a water treatment area?
3. What happens to water after evaporation?
4. The Earth is covered by how much water?

Matching Questions. Write the letter of the answer that matches each statement.

_____ 0 degrees Celsius

_____ Expand

_____ Groundwater

_____ Electricity

a. People use the power of moving water to make

b. Water freezes at what temperature?

c. If you freeze water in a plastic bottle the water will

d. Water that seeps down and collects in underground is called

Multiple choice. Mark with an "X" the correct response or answer.

1. Describe what occurs with condensation?

- ☐ the water vapor rises and forms clouds
- ☐ the clouds get heavy and turn into rain, sleet, hail or snow
- ☐ when water changes into gas called water vapor
- ☐ water evaporates into water vapor when temperatures rise

2. Describe what occurs with evaporation?

- ☐ water evaporates into water vapor when temperatures rise
- ☐ the water vapor rises and forms clouds
- ☐ the clouds get heavy and turn into rain, sleet, hail or snow
- ☐ when water changes into gas called water vapor

Mark with an "X" if the answer is true or false.

3 True/False questions

1. What do the chemicals do that are added to water at a water treatment area? → groundwater

- ☐ True
- ☐ False

2. The Earth is covered by how much water? → 75%

- ☐ True
- ☐ False

3. What is evaporation? → the water vapor rises and forms clouds

- ☐ True
- ☐ False