

PHOTOSYNTHESIS

Match:

Angiosperms	It transports raw sap from the roots to the leaves through the stem.
Photosynthesis	It is in the blade. It carries water and minerals and supports the leaf.
Xylem	They are thick stems from ferns.
Mosses	The process of making food on a plant.
Vein	They are the largest group of flowering plants. They produce seed inside fruit. Its leaves change color in autumn.
Raw sap	It is a part of a leaf. It connects the blade to the plant's stem
Rhizomes	They are tiny holes on the back of the blade. They allow gases to enter and exit the leaf.
Petiole	They are primitive plants. They have very simple stems and leaves. They reproduce by spores. They have small hairs that hold the plant to the soil.
Blade	The mixture of water and minerals.
Stomata	It is the flat part of a leaf.