I was surprised by the good (a) orientation / organization / sensation of the lessons. The (b) glassrooms / glasses and rooms / classrooms are very spacious, well equipped with (c) projects / projectors / directors and interactive (d) whiteboards / blackboards / white walls. The social programme is fantastic: pub sessions to meet new students, guided tours to museums and every Saturday (e) drip / trip / visit to other cities and towns. Sundays are days off, so you can visit other (f) places / faces / stages with your new friends from school.

I keep the best memories of all the people that I (g) meet / get / met in Liverpool. From my host family, with a kind and generous woman, to the people from the school. I met people of many (h) nationalities / nations / countries and it was a fun and rewarding experience. I keep in touch with many of them and I've even (i) been / saw / seen some friends again... It's great, you can't describe it, you have to live it! This is a totally recommendable (k) experiment / experience / expertise that I'm looking forward to repeating.

Daniel
