

What type of 'will sentence' is it?

- a) Prediction of future event without proof (It will snow in January)
- b) a spontaneous decision (I will do it! I will ask him out right now)
- c) an offer (I will bring you some juice)
- d) promise (I won't tell anyone; I promise)

1. I will help you with your homework tomorrow.
2. I think George will be elected as our next class president.
3. – 'What would you like to eat'
- 'I think I'll have chicken'
4. You look hungry. I will cook you a dinner.
5. - 'Don't be late!'
- 'I know, I won't!'
6. I will look after the children for you if you like.
7. I am getting cold! I think I will put a heater on.
8. When I get older, I will be a successful lawyer.

