

Name _____ Date _____

Aero and Officer Mike

Put an X in the box beside the correct answer.

1. Why did the author write this story?

to prove that dogs are smart

to explain how to train dogs

to show what police dogs do

to tell how dogs can help people

2. Why did the author write the section called "On Duty"?

to explain that police cars are better than regular cars to describe Aero's police car and tell how he protects it to show what a long, hard day Aero has when he works to show that Aero has many duties and tasks to perform

3. Which of the author's words show that police dogs get to play sometimes?

"When Aero is on duty, he's not allowed to play."

"Aero likes children and is always gentle with them"

"Aero knows he'll also have time to explore a little and maybe chase a tennis ball while they are stopped."

"When Aero and Officer Mike have been in the police care for a few hours, Aero will need to take a break."

4. Why does the author write that each person has a scent that is different from everyone else's scent?

to help explain why Aero is so gentle with sick children to help explain how Aero can find people by using his nose to help explain why it is hard for children to play hide-and-seek to help explain how animals know who is friendly and who is not

5. Why does the author include information about how to approach Aero?

to show readers that not all dogs are police dogs

to explain to readers how dangerous dogs can be to teach readers how to be safe around police dogs to tell readers how scared dogs can get when they meet children

6. Why did the author write the section called "Back at the Station?"

to tell how important Aero is to Officer Mike to tell where Aero and Officer Mike sleep every night to tell what Aero and Officer Mike do when they take a break to tell what happens at the end of Aero and Officer Mike's shift

7. Which of the following would Officer Mike most likely say about Aero?

Aero spends too much time working.

Aero enjoys working as a police dog.

Aero wants to be like other dogs.

Aero likes to take a lot of naps.

8. Which of the following does the author most likely think about Aero?

that Aero should go to the veterinarian for check-ups more often that Aero is difficult to work with that Aero is good at his job

that Aero is dangerous

9. How are the children in 4-H similar to Aero?

They visit schools to help children.

They do good things for the community.

They help find people who break the law.

They win prizes when they do a good job.

10. How are Aero and the shelter dogs ALIKE?

They need exercise.

They need special collars.

They live with police officers

They get to ride in police cars

11. What does the word ability mean?

Hummingbirds have the ability to fly backwards.

special skills

difficult task

strange habit

favorite game

12. What does the word patrols mean?

Our cat patrols the backyard for squirrels and rabbits.

sniffs around

plays games in

adds danger to

keeps watch over

13. What does the word partners mean?

Jack and Guy are partners, so they share the pay from the job.

people who are bosses

people who are friends

people who work together

people who like the same color

14. What does the word snap mean?

When the turtle sees the worm it will snap at it.

open wide

bite suddenly

blink quickly

swim toward

15. What does the word quiver mean?

The puppies quiver with excitement when they see the kitten.

fall

howl

scratch

shake

16. What does the word incorrect mean?

Grandmas did not get my postcard because the address I wrote was incorrect.

long

old

small

wrong

17. What does the word impolite mean?

It is impolite to push in front of someone in line.

lazy

rude

sorry

wise

18. Which of the following describes someone who is impatient?

feels sleepy

talks too loudly

does not feel well

does not like to wait

19. Which of the following describes something that is impossible?

It will not be fun

it cannot be done.

It is not hard to do.

It does not take long

20. What does the word incomplete mean in the sentence below?

Your art project is incomplete; you still need to paint it.

not full

not used

not needed

not finished