TENSE CHANGES IN REPORTED SPEECH

Direct Speech	Reported Speech
Present Simple She always wears a coat.	Past Simple He said (that) she always wore a coat.

The graphic illustrates the change from Present Simple to Past Simple in reported speech. It features a blue header with the title 'TENSE CHANGES IN REPORTED SPEECH'. Below this, there are two columns: 'Direct Speech' and 'Reported Speech'. Under 'Direct Speech', it shows 'Present Simple' with the example 'She always wears a coat.' where 'wears' is underlined. Under 'Reported Speech', it shows 'Past Simple' with the example 'He said (that) she always wore a coat.' where 'wore' is underlined. A green arrow points from the Direct Speech column to the Reported Speech column. There are also small cartoon illustrations of a girl and a boy.
